

Announcing the 2009 Shinjinkai

KANGEIKO Aikido Winter Seminar

21-22 February 2009, Chicago

Instruction by

Lisa Tomoleoni Sensei Aikido Shimboku Dojo

Meido Moore Sensei Shinjinkai

Shinjinkai is pleased to invite you on Feb. 21-22 2009 to this Aikido training seminar at Shinjinkai H.Q. in Chicago, IL. Training is open to Aikido and other martial art practitioners of any style, organization or level. Instruction will include both taijutsu (empty-hand technique) and weapon (ken, jo, tanto) practice.

Shinjinkai is pleased to welcome our special guest this year: Lisa Tomoleoni Sensei, Chief Instructor of Aikido Shimboku Dojo in Lake in the Hills, Illinois.

Lisa Tomoleoni Sensei holds the rank of 5th dan, received directly from Moriteru Ueshiba, Aikido Doshu. She spent 13 years in Japan training at the Aikido World Headquarters and teaching Aikido professionally at a dojo in Tokyo. She also has yudansha ranking in Judo and Iaido and is a member of the Kenshukan Dojo in Tokyo.

Meido Moore Sensei was the primary student of the late Aikido and Zen master Tenzan (Fumio) Toyoda Sensei (1947-2001). He is the founder and Director of Shinjinkai and Chief Instructor at its headquarters, Shinjinkan Dojo in Chicago. For the past 19 years, Moore Sensei has instructed Aikido internationally in both traditional and applied (tactical) contexts; he holds the rank of 5th dan in Aikido.
