

Announcing the 2011 Shinjinkai

KANGEIKO Aikido Winter Seminar

19-20 February, Chicago

Instruction by

Meido Moore Sensei Director, Shinjinkai

Shinjinkai is pleased to invite you on Feb. 19-20 to this Aikido training seminar at Shinjinkai H.Q. in Chicago, IL.

Training is open to Aikido and other martial art practitioners of any style, organization or level. Instruction will include both taijutsu (empty-hand technique) and weapon (ken, jo, tanto) practice.

Kangeiko is the training period traditional held at the coldest time of the year. It is a time to burn through the winter cold with intense training and to re-dedicate oneself to the Aikido path. Please join us as we continue this tradition.

Meido Moore Sensei was the primary student of the late Aikido and Zen master Tenzan (Fumio) Toyoda Sensei (1947-2001). He is the founder and Director of Shinjinkai and Chief Instructor at its headquarters, Shinjinkan Dojo in Chicago. For the past 20 years, Moore Sensei has instructed Aikido internationally in both traditional and applied (tactical) contexts; he holds the rank of 5th dan in Aikido.

For more information on Shinjinkai, please see us at www.shinjinkai.org.
