

Announcing an Aikido Seminar
in Winchester, KY

Instructed by
M. Moore Sensei
Director of Shinjinkai,
The Japanese Martial Arts Society

hosted by
Bluegrass Budokai

Bluegrass Budokai and Shinjinkai are pleased to invite you on August 14-15 to this seminar instructing Aikido taijutsu (body arts) and weapons. Martial art practitioners of any art, organization or level are welcome to attend.

Meido Moore Sensei holds the rank of godan in Aikido. His training background includes 6 years spent as uchideshi (live-in apprentice) under the late Aikido and Zen master Fumio Toyoda Shihan, who designated Mr. Moore as his primary shihandai (master's assistant) and as one of two successors to his unique style of Aikido training and teaching. An internationally known instructor, Moore Sensei today directs Shinjinkai, a Chicago-based organization promoting Aikido and other traditional Japanese martial arts. For more information on Moore Sensei and Shinjinkai, please go to www.shinjinkai.org.
